Book of Haggai

Chapter 1

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to consider our ways.

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, that when we have sown much, but bring in little, we should consider our ways.

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, that when we eat, but do not have enough to eat, we should consider our ways.

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, that when we drink, but do not have enough to drink, we should consider our ways.

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, that when we are clothed, but are not warm, we should consider our ways.

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, that when we earn wages, but the wages are spent quickly and are not enough, we should consider our ways.

Lord God, cause me to consider my ways.

Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways. Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

Haggai 1: 5-7

Chapter 2

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that You made a covenant with Your people when You took them out of Egypt.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that You made it known that Your spirit remained with Your people when they came out of Egypt.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Your covenants are faithful, so those who Your spirit remains with, should not fear.

Lord, thank You for keeping Your covenants.

Lord God, cause Your spirit to remain with me.

Lord God, cause me to trust in Your promises.

Lord God, cause me to know that Your spirit is with me, so I will have no reason to fear.

Lord God, cause me to not fear.

According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.
