Chapter 1

Lord God, thank You for Your servants, Paul, and Timotheus, and for their letter to the saints in Christ Jesus who were at Philippi.

Paul and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

Philippians 1: 1

Lord God, thank You for the grace, and peace, that comes from You, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1: 2

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that it is good to thank You on every remembrance of the brethren.

Lord God, cause me to thank You on every remembrance of my Christian brothers and sisters.

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

Philippians 1: 3

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Paul gave You thanks on every remembrance of his fellow brethren in Christ.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Paul prayed to You, and made requests for his fellow brethren in Christ, from their first day in the fellowship of the gospel.

Lord God, cause me to give You thanks on every remembrance of my fellow brethren in Christ.

Lord God, cause me to pray to You, and make requests for my fellow brethren in Christ, from their first day in the fellowship of the gospel.

Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

Philippians 1: 4-5

Lord God, thank You for Your promise that we can be confident, that after You have begun a good work in us, You will continue to perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

Lord God, begin a good work in me.

Lord God, give me confidence, that after having begun a good work in me, You will continue to perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

Philippians 1: 6

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Paul's prayer was for the love of his brethren in Christ, to abound more and more in knowledge and all judgments.

Lord God, give me a heart to pray for other believers, that their love would abound more and more in knowledge and all judgments.

Lord God, cause my love to abound more and more in knowledge and all judgments.

And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;

Philippians 1: 9

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Paul's prayer was for his brethren in Christ, to approve things that are excellent, be sincere, and be without offense until the day of Christ.

Lord God, give me a heart to pray for other believers, that they will approve things that are excellent, be sincere, and be without offense until the day of Christ.

Lord God, cause me to approve things that are excellent, be sincere, and be without offense until the day of Christ.

That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

Philippians 1: 10

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that it is good for us to be filled with the fruits of righteousness.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that the fruits of righteousness, are by Christ Jesus, and are to Your glory and praise.

Lord God, continually fill me with the fruits of righteousness, by Christ Jesus.

Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

Philippians 1: 11

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that it is not always important what a person's motive for preaching Christ is, as long as the true message of Christ is being preached.

Lord God, when the true message of Christ is being preached, cause me to rejoice, without regarding the motive of the speaker.

What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

Philippians 1: 18

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Your deliverance from bad situations can be achieved through prayer, and the Spirit of Jesus Christ.

Lord God, cause me to receive deliverance through prayer, and the Spirit of Your Son.

For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

Philippians 1: 19

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that because of our expectation in Christ, we should not be ashamed.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that with all boldness, Christ should be magnified.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that in our bodies, whether by life or by death, Christ should be magnified.

Lord God, having placed my expectations in Christ, cause me to be bold and not ashamed.

Lord God, cause me to magnify Christ in my body, both in life and through my death.

According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

Philippians 1: 20

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Christ is life.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that if we die in Christ, we will gain.

Lord God, cause me to live in Christ, so when I die, I will gain.

For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

Philippians 1: 21

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that while I live in the flesh, we can achieve fruitful labor.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that departing to be with Christ, is much better than living in the flesh.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, Paul was not able to choose between living in the flesh and achieving fruitful labor, or to depart and be with Christ, which he felt was far better.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that while I live in the flesh, I can achieve fruitful labor, but it is also a desirable thing to depart and be with Christ.

But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not. For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

Philippians 1: 22-23

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that when we abide in the flesh we can be a blessing to others, for their furtherance and joy of faith.

Lord God, thank You for allowing Your servants to abide on earth, for others progress and joy of faith.

Lord God, while I am in the flesh, cause me to abide with others for their progress and joy of faith.

Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

Philippians 1: 24-25

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we may be able to rejoice more abundantly in Jesus Christ, because Your servants were left to abide on earth to minister to others.

Lord God, cause me rejoice more abundantly in Jesus Christ, by Your servants who are here ministering to me.

Lord God, cause me to minister to others, so they may be able to rejoice more abundantly in Jesus Christ.

That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

Philippians 1: 26

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to let my conversation be in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ.

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to stand fast in one spirit, with one mind, striving with others for the faith of the gospels.

Lord God, cause my conduct to be in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so it may be said that I stand firm with others, in one spirit, with one mind, striving together for the faith of the gospel.

Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

Philippians 1: 27

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to not be terrified by our adversaries.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that our patient perseverance in the presence of our adversaries, is a sign of their destruction.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that our patient perseverance in the presence of our adversaries, is a sign of our salvation.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that our salvation is from You.

Lord God, cause me to not be afraid of my adversaries, as a sign of their destruction.

Lord God, cause me to not be afraid of my adversaries, as a sign of my salvation.

Lord God, thank You for my salvation, which is from You.

And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

Philippians 1: 28

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that it is given to us on Christ's behalf, to believe on him.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that it is given to us on Christ's behalf, to suffer for his sake.

Lord God, cause me to believe on Christ.

Lord God, cause me to accept suffering on Christ's behalf, and to expect suffering by those who believe on him.

For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

Philippians 1: 29

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that the sufferings that are given us for Your sake, are not new or uncommon.

Lord God, cause me to accept sufferings given me for Your sake, as common to those who believe in Christ.

Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

Philippians 1: 30

Chapter 2

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Christ should be an encouragement to us.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should take comfort in the love that surrounds us.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should have fellowship of the Spirit.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should show affection and mercy.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that it can fill the joy of believers, when other share love for one another.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should be of one accord with other believers.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should be of like mind with other believers.

Lord God, encourage me with Your Son.

Lord God, make me like minded with other believers, in all comforts of Christ, fellowship of the Spirit, affections, and mercy.

Therefore if there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and mercy, fulfill my joy by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

Philippians 2: 1-2 (NKJV)

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to not do anything out of selfish ambition or vain conceit.

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to humbly consider others better than ourselves.

Lord God, cause me to not do things out of selfish ambition, or vain conceit.

Lord God, cause me to consider others better than myself.

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves.

Philippians 2: 3 (NIV)

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to not only look out for our own interests, but also for the interests of others.

Lord God, cause me to not only be concerned of my own interests, but incline my heart to be concerned about the needs of others.

Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

Philippians 2: 4

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to let the mindset of Jesus, be in us.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Jesus existed in Your form, but did not regard equality with You something to be exploited.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Jesus made himself of no reputation, and took on himself the form of a servant.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Jesus was made in the likeness of man.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Jesus being found in the fashion of a man, humbled himself, and became obedient to death, even death on a cross.

Lord God, cause me to understand the sacrifice Your Son made, humbling himself even unto death, for my sake and the sake of the brethren.

Lord God, as You have instructed me to be like mind with Your Son, place in my heart to be of no reputation, to take the form of a servant, being humble, and obedient, even unto death.

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

Philippians 2: 5-8

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that You have highly exalted Jesus Christ.

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that You have given Jesus Christ a name, which is above every name.

Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

Philippians 2: 9

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that at the name of Jesus, every knee shall bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

Lord God, create in me a willing, joyful heart, that is always ready to bow at the name of Jesus.

That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

Philippians 2: 10

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that when someone confesses that Jesus Christ is Lord, it is to Your glory.

And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2: 11

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to work out our own salvation with fear and trembling.

Lord God, cause me to consider my need of salvation, and to seek Your work in me to accomplish it.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that You are able to work in us, causing us to both desire and also to do of Your good pleasure.

Lord God, do Your work in me, creating in me a desire, and also causing me to do of Your good pleasure.

Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

Philippians 2: 12-13

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to do all things without murmuring and disputing.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that by doing all things without murmuring and disputing, we can be blameless and harmless, Your sons, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that by doing all things without murmuring and disputing, we can shine as lights in the world.

Lord God, create in me a heart to do Your will, joyfully, without arguing or complaining. As Your child, cause me to be blameless and harmless, and shine as a light in this world.

Do all things without murmurings and disputings: That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

Philippians 2: 14-15

Lord God, thank You for truth, that by holding fast to the word of life, we can bring rejoicing to those who labored to bring us Your word, in that they did not labor in vain.

Lord God, cause me to hold fast to the word of life, and bring rejoicing to those who labored to bring Your word to me, in that they did not labor in vain.

Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

Philippians 2: 16

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Paul was ready to shed his blood for the service of his brethren, and of the church.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Paul had joy, and was rejoicing over the faith of his brethren.

Lord God, cause me to have a heart of joy, and rejoicing, when my brethren's faith is growing.

Lord God, cause me to have joy for the service of faith of others, even in personal hardship

Lord God, even if I suffer hardship, cause me to have joy, and rejoice, in the service of another's faith.

Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

Philippians 2: 17

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that there are others who rejoice over my faith.

Lord God, thank You for the brethren who are there to support my faith, even unto death.

For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

Philippians 2: 18

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Jesus is Lord.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that the Lord Jesus is able to send someone somewhere.

But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

Philippians 2: 19

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that generally people seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

Lord God, cause me to seek the things which are Jesus Christ's.

Lord God, give me a heart to care for the things which are Jesus Christ's.

For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

Philippians 2: 21

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that when a person is deathly sick, it is possible for You to have mercy on him.

Lord God, please have mercy on me when I call on You for help.

For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

Philippians 2: 27

Chapter 3

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, that we should rejoice in the Lord.

Lord God, cause me to rejoice in You, and in Your son, Jesus.

Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

Philippians 3: 1

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to beware of evil workers.

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to beware of those who mutilate the flesh.

Lord God, cause me to beware of evil workers.

Lord God, cause me to beware of those who mutilate the flesh.

Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

Philippians 3: 2

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that those who worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Jesus Christ, and have no confidence in the flesh, are the circumcision.

Lord God, cause me to be of the circumcision.

Lord God, cause me to worship You in the spirit.

Lord God, cause me to rejoice in Jesus Christ.

Lord God, cause me to have no confidence in the flesh.

For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

Philippians 3: 3

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that if any man was able to have confidence in the flesh, it would have been Paul.

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that if any man was able to have confidence in the flesh, it would have been Paul.

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that even though Paul may have been able to trust in the flesh more than any other man, he counted those things as a loss for Christ.

Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more: Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee; Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

Philippians 3: 4-7

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that Paul counted everything in his life a loss, except for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, his Lord.

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that Paul felt like he had suffered a loss of all things, and now counted them as worthless, so that he would win Christ.

Lord God, cause me to not value anything in my life, more than I value Christ.

Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

Philippians 3: 8

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that if we were able to have our own righteousness, it would be through the law.

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that it is better to be found in Christ, having the faith of Christ, which is the righteousness offered by God through faith.

Lord God, cause me to be found in Christ, with the faith of Christ, having received the righteousness offered by God through faith.

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

Philippians 3: 9

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that it is good to know Jesus Christ.

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that it is good to know the power of Jesus Christ's resurrection.

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that it is good to have fellowship in Jesus Christ's sufferings.

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that it is good to become like Jesus Christ in his death.

Lord God, cause me to know Jesus Christ.

Lord God, cause me to know the power of Jesus Christ's resurrection.

Lord God, cause me to have fellowship in Jesus Christ's sufferings.

Lord God, cause me to become like Jesus Christ in his death.

That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

Philippians 3: 10

Lord God, thank you for Your truth, that we should desire to attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

Lord God, cause me to be the person you choose, to attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

Philippians 3: 11

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should not consider that we have already been made perfect.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should not consider that we ever were perfect.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should press forward to lay hold on that, for which we were laid hold on by Christ Jesus.

Lord God, cause me to understand that I have not been made perfect yet.

Lord God, cause me to understand that I need to press forward, that I might lay hold on that, for which I was laid hold on by Christ Jesus.

Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3: 12

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should not consider that our work is done, and that we should stop striving to seek Your will in our lives.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should forget those things in our past that we are not able to change.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should reach forward to do those things that are placed before us.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should press forward toward the mark, for the prize of Your high calling in Christ Jesus.

Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3: 13-14

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that your children our citizens of heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Christ will change Your children's vile bodies, to be fashioned like his glorious body.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Your Son Jesus Christ, has the power to make all things subject to himself.

Lord God, grant me citizenship, and cause my conversations to be as if I am already in heaven.

Lord God, in Your perfect timing, cause Your Son to fashion my vile body into a glorious body.

For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

Philippians 3: 20-21

Chapter 4

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Paul dearly beloved, and longed for the brethren.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that the brethren were Paul considered the brethren, his joy and crown.

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to stand fast in the Lord.

Lord God, cause me to stand fast in the Lord.

Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

Philippians 4: 1

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to rejoice in You always.

Lord God, cause me to rejoice in You, and in You find joy and gladness.

Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

Philippians 4: 4

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to let our moderation be known to all men.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that You are near.

Lord God, cause me to be moderate, and to make my moderation known to all men.

Lord God, cause me always make remembrance of Your closeness.

Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

Philippians 4: 5

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to not be anxious for anything.

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to let our requests be known to You in everything through prayer, earnest requests, and expressed thankfulness.

Lord God, thank You for Your promise that if we are not anxious for anything, but we let our requests be known to You in everything through prayer, earnest requests, and expressed thankfulness, Your peace, which passes all understanding, will keep our hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Lord God, cause me to rely on You for everything, and to not be anxious for anything.

Lord God, cause me to expressing my thankfulness towards You, and earnestly bring all my requests to You.

Lord God, give me Your peace which passes all understanding, and keep my heart and mind through Christ Jesus.

Lord God, as I rely on You for everything, not being anxious, but expressing thankfulness, and bringing my requests earnestly to You, give me Your peace which passes all understanding, and keep my heart and mind through Christ Jesus.

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4: 6-7

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to think on things that are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, of good report, virtuous, and praiseworthy.

Lord God, cause me to think on things that are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, of good report, virtuous, and praiseworthy.

Lord God, keep me always mindful of things that are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, of good report, and those things that have virtue or deserve praise.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

Philippians 4: 8

Lord God, thank You for Your instruction, to do the things we have learned, received, heard, and the things we know Paul the Apostle did.

Lord God, thank You for Your promise, that if we do the things we have learned, received, heard, and the things we know Paul the Apostle did, Your peace will be with us.

Lord God, cause me to do what you have taught, given, spoken, and shown through Paul the Apostle.

Lord God, cause Your peace to be with me.

Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

Philippians 4: 9

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that we should be content in whatever state we are in.

Lord God, cause me to be content, in whatever state I am in.

Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

Philippians 4: 11

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that Paul could do all things through Christ which strengthened him.

Lord God, cause Christ to strengthen me, to be able to do all things.

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

Philippians 4: 13

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that You will supply all our needs according to Your riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

Lord God, supply all my needs according to Your riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

Lord God, thank You for supplying all my needs.

But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus

Philippians 4: 19

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that You are our Father.

Lord God, thank You for Your truth, that You possess glory for ever and ever.

Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Philippians 4: 20

Lord God, thank You for Paul's exhortation, that the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with us.

Lord God, cause the grace of my Lord Jesus Christ to be with me.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Philippians 4: 23
